Program Description

This isn't your average job. ARTPrenticeship Apprentices train under the guidance of professional teaching artists and work side-by-side with other local youth to create public art and community impact projects. The majority of available jobs are in painting. Projects can also include: Illustration, Digital Imaging, Drawing, Photography, Film Making, Graphic Design and various mediums

It is our intention to offer paid summer arts-based job training and creative opportunities for youth (ages 16-20) in McLennan county public schools who are rising juniors and seniors.

In addition to art experience, apprentices develop important work-readiness skills like time management, public speaking, teamwork, job site management and safety, critical thinking and problem solving. During the program, apprentices participate in workshops that focus on financial literacy, entrepreneurial skills and empathy training.

The ARTPrenticeship program emphasize team-teaching. The ratio of professional artists to youth apprentices will typically be 1:4 for hands-on learning and is based on team size and budget.
